++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloudy with rain arriving later in the night.

This Evening and Tonight:
Mostly cloudy this evening, though with a few clear spells. A band of rain moving south across the region during the second half of the night, turning patchier towards dawn. Clear spells to end the night across north Wales. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Friday:
Early patchy rain in the south largely fizzling out, with the sunshine in the north becoming more widespread with time. Despite the sunshine, a cooler feeling day for most. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A chilly start on Saturday, especially further north and east, but steadily becoming cloudier and milder again. Gradually turning more unsettled and breezier from Sunday into next week.
